In this retelling of the Biblical story, Joseph is a handsome young man who is his father's favorite child, and the recipient of an amazing multicolored coat. This leads Joseph's eleven brothers to become insatiably jealous. They sell Joseph into slavery. After refusing the advances of his owner's wife, Joseph is sent to jail. Once in jail, he quickly becomes popular due to his ability to interpret dreams. The Pharaoh soon hears of Joseph's ability and appoints him to the post of Number Two man in Egypt. Years later, Joseph's now starving brothers arrive in Egypt and ask Joseph, whom they don't recognize for assistance. Joseph, in turn, gives the brothers a scare, but eventually reveals his identity, forgives and reunites with his family.

Auditions are Announced for PPP's upcoming production of:

The Sunshine Boys

A comedy by Neil Simon

Directed by Mary Gilmore

Assistant Director: Paul Horst

Lewis and Clark were famous comedians during the vaudeville era; off-stage, though, they couldn't stand each other and haven't spoken in over 20 years. Ben, Willy Clark's nephew is the producer of a variety show that wants to feature a reunion of the classic duo. How will Ben convince the crotchety old comedians to put aside their differences before the big show?

Parts are available for 5 males and 2 females

Auditions will be held March 7th at 1:30 pm at the Wagner Building (next to Happy Joe's)

Performances will be at 7:30 pm May 8th and 9th and at 2:00 pm May 10th
at the Ohnward Fine Arts Center, Maquoketa, Iowa
