Charles Dickens'

Ohnward Fine Arts Center and Peace Pipe Players have teamed up for a joint fundraiser production of the classic holiday tale
A Christmas Carol.

Don't miss local favorites as they bring us the heartwarming story of Scrooge, Tiny Tim and the ghosts of Christmas past, present and future.

This production will coincide with Ohnward's beautiful
Festival of Trees; the perfect way to kick off the holiday season!

If you have any questions or wish to volunteer please contact director Sharon Goettler at 563-652-2338 / sharong@mchsi.com.

Thanks to all the talented area High School Seniors who applied for the first annual Peace Pipe Players scholarship.

The winner of the $250 scholarship is Lauren Ehrler from Andrew High School. Lauren will be attending Drake University to study Journalism and Electronic Media-Broadcast News.

Presenting the award to Lauren is PPP President Lori Houston.

The PPP Board has decided that all donations from our concessions will be put into the new scholarship fund.

Thanks also to the scholarship committee Janet Burrow, Robyn Lane and Angie Ruley for their hard work on this project.

Earlier this spring, PPP heard from the IRS, but it was great news!

PPP has been granted non-profit, 501c3 status.

This means that our supporters and contributors will be able to deduct their donations as charitable contributions.

Thanks again to all who responded to our Friends campaign last year and we hope that you will consider us again in the future!

In other exciting news, PPP will once again have a place to call our own.

We have purchased a set of buildings on N Eliza St (previously Tony's cycle shop).

We are currently in the process of renovating .

Special thanks to Paul Horst, Tim Taylor, Lori Houston, Sharon Goettler.

Thanks also to T&J Manufacturing for the use of the scissor lift-what a lifesaver!

When finished, this facility will provide space for rehearsals, storage, set construction and board meetings.

We hope to be settled in time for rehearsals for A Christmas Carol to be held there this fall.

Anyone who is able/willing to help on work nights, haul trash, spray weeds, build out a costume closet, help move our belongings, contribute financially...the list is endless, please contact Paul Horst or Tim Taylor.

Our thanks and congratulations to the cast and crew of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat!

As the show title claims, it was an amazing experience and many new friendships were forged.

We also learned to beware of the killer sheep and the nun - she will steal the show!
