This renowned comedy begins with a group of 'the boys' assembled for cards in the apartment of a divorced friend, Oscar. And, if the mess is any indication, it's no wonder that his wife left him. Late to arrive is Felix, who, they learn, has just separated from his wife. They fear he might commit suicide, and so he is scarcely allowed to go to the bathroom alone. As life would have it, the slob Oscar, and the meticulous Felix decide to bunk together with hilarious results. The patterns of their own disastrous marriages begin to reappear in this arrangement, and so this too must end.
