Peace Pipe Players Spotlight

We all had a great time at our 40th anniversary party last fall!

It was good to see so many familiar faces gathered together to celebrate 40 years of friendships and memories. We appreciated the help from the Maquoketa and Andrew speech/drama students. They allowed all of us to enjoy ourselves and join in the party. Also, thanks to Ron Delegardelle for making our champagne toast. As always Ron did a fine job.

If anyone ordered a copy of the celebration DVD and has not received it, please accept our apologies. You can pick one up from Jack Jones at the Voy Theatre or contact Shelley Hoyer 652-5985 and she will be sure you get one.

If you were not able to attend or did not order a DVD that night, they are available for a $20 donation. Please contact Jack Jones at the Voy Theatre 652-2877.

Peace Pipe Players Proudly Present:

Steel Magnolias

by Robert Harling

Directed by Erica Barker and Joel Davidson

Set in the local beauty parlor of a small Louisiana town, this comedy/drama focuses on the camaraderie of six women who laugh, cry, gossip and survive the hardships and splendors of life.

They are the 'steel magnolias' of the title: Southern belles, flowery on the outside, but strong enough inside to survive any challenge.

Auditions will be held May 5th and 6th, 2007

2:00 pm

607 Myatt Drive, Maquoketa

(old racquet ball club behind Happy Joe's)

You'll shoot your eye out!

Who would have thought that phrase would become synonymous with Christmas?

Set in the 1940's,

A Christmas Story recalls a young boy's longing for a prized Christmas gift:

a Daisy Red Ryder 200 Shot
Carbine Action BB Air Rifle.

But the story relates much more.

A Christmas Story is not so much a nod to Christmas' past, as it is a testament to the universal qualities of family life, holiday traditions and boyhood.

Shelley Hoye will be directing the classic holiday show:

Coming this December.
Watch for details regarding auditions and show dates!
